Introducing Our First Collection

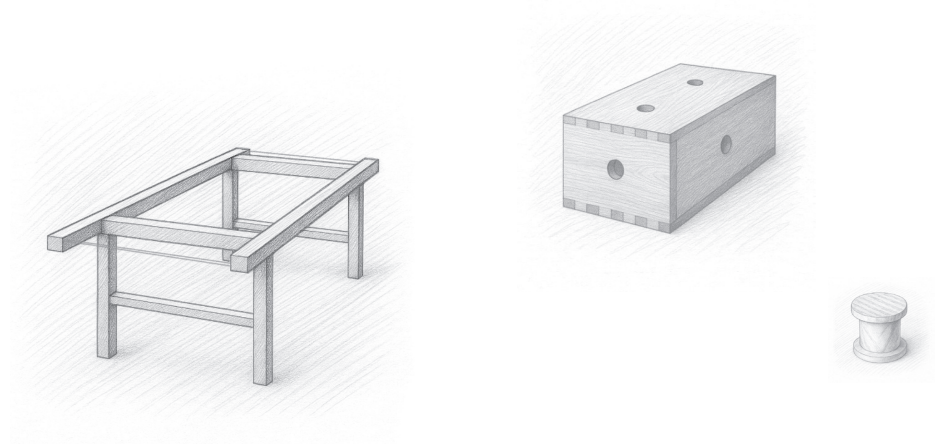

Designed by Lichen in New York, Crafted by Karimoku Furniture in Japan

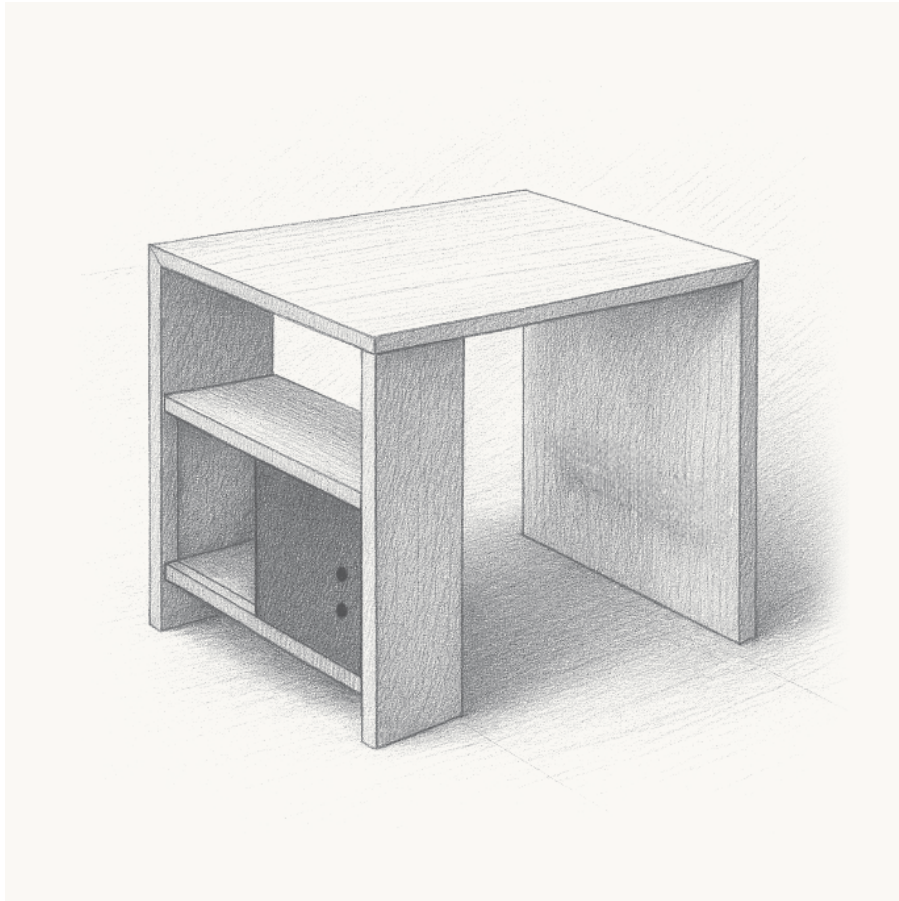

CMPT by Lichen is a line of furniture designed to grow and move with you.

The ethos is grounded in city dwelling and the homes that define which kinds of furniture these spaces can accommodate.

The collection's DNA is rooted in mobility, storage, and perhaps more importantly - its modularity. Each piece was designed to be adaptable to meet the needs of everyday living whether you live in a studio apartment or a sprawling residence.
